

The Feminist Economics: Contributions and Challenges Conference organized a webinar session on Monday, May 16th, 5-7.30 pm UK time zone.

Webinar Program

Part I Introduction

5pm UK time:zone Welcome and introduction. Dr. Maria Alejandra Madi

Part II Panel with the Conference Authors: 10 minute presentations

5:15 to 5:40 pm UK time zone
Alicia Puyana Mutis and Cinyhia Moranchel	Gender and ethnic labor discrimination in Mexico	apuyana@flacso.edu.mx cinthiamm@comunidad.unam.mx
Hannah Acutt	Thinking with care and care work in women-owned home-based enterprises in South Africa	hmacutt@gmail.com
5:45 to 6:05 pm UK time zone
Meltem Ince Yenilmez	Gender Equality In Turkey: One Step Forward, Two Steps Back	melteminceyenilmez@gmail.com
Burça Kızıllırmak and Emel Memiş	Income Poverty and Intra-Household Allocation of Paid and Unpaid Work Time: An Analysis on Rural/Urban Distinction in Turkey	abkizilirmak@gmail.com emel.memis@gmail.com
6:10 to 6:50 pm UK time zone
Agostina Costantino	Deuda externa y sesgo de género. Algunas aproximaciones desde la Economía Feminista	agoscostantino@gmail.com
Nishat Anjum and Nancy Yadav	Comparing trade-off_ between paid and unpaid work for farm and off-farm rural women: with special focus on household land size ownership	nancy12_ssa@jnu.ac.in
Ritwika Patgiri	The Myth of Empowerment: The Crisis of Middle-Class Working Women	ritwikapatgiri5@gmail.com
Prachi Bansal	Female Labour Absorption in Indian Agriculture A Study based on Farm-Enterprise Data	bansalprachi52@gmail.com

Part III

7 to 7:30 pm UK time zone: Questions & Answers. Moderator: Dr Maria Alejandra Madi

The attendees sent their questions via chat box during the webinar.

Part IV

7:30 pm UK time zone: Concluding remarks